

Donnie Darko, an audience reaction

Stijn Terrie (FB Oct 11, 2024)

@filmfestgent kicked off with a phenomenal re-take of Donnie Darko. Phenomenal thanks to @blindmancollective's new layer of sound performed live during the screening. A new sound layer respecting the already fantastic soundtrack but with a lot of artistic extras that raised the horror level. Although for the first ten minutes I found the new layer almost disturbing, the atmosphere completely changed and the collective completely sucked me into a film I had come to love over 20 years ago. But above all: what a wonderful format Videodroom of @viernulvier.gent offers us here again with excellent programming. And what a delightful intro already beforehand by the dry but so literate and inspired moderator. I Love Videodroom!
